

Harrison Craig

Singer, author and winner of "The Voice".

Biography

Harrison Craig made his mark as winner of the second series of The Voice Australia. Since that time, he has achieved two #1 ARIA albums (his More Than a Dream studio album reaching platinum), embarked on a 54 show tour of Australia for his Kings of Vegas studio album, as well as international performances in Canada, Indonesia and USA.

Harrison and has had the unique experience of working with the likes of Seal, David Foster, Baz Luhrmann, Diane Warren, Barry Gibb and Olivia Newton-John.

His style of pop and adult contemporary includes the musical influences of Nat King Cole, Elvis Presley and Andrea Bocelli.

Having grown up with a stutter, Harrison's passion for inspiring others doesn't stop, having written and released his first children's picture book, Harrison's Song. The book is an autobiographical tale of how Harrison struggled to manage his stutter - until he discovered his ability to sing. Harrison's Song is available in ask good bookstores and features in the Dolly Parton Imagination Library collection.

Harrison has been touring Australia and other parts of the world to speak to students, teachers, and parents alike about chasing your dreams, explaining that no matter what your vice or hurdle is, you can overcome that and live your dream.

Harrison is releasing his brand new EP in late 2022.
